

Christopher M. Klug, Esq., LL.M.: Chris' advanced degree in taxation law, along with his attention, dedication and hard work on client matters has made Chris an important asset to the Pierro Law Group. Chris joined the Pierro Law Group in 2009. He focuses his practice in the areas of Estate Planning, Elder Law, Tax Planning, Business Succession Planning, and Estate and Trust Administration. Chris is admitted to practice law in New York, District of Columbia, Michigan, and Illinois.

Chris is a member of the New York State Bar Association and American Bar Association. Within the New York State Bar Association, Chris is a member of the Business Law, Elder Law, Real Property, Tax, Trust and Estates, and Young Lawyers Section. Chris serves on the Financial Planning Committee and Practice Management Committee within the Elder Law Section of the New York State Bar Association.

Chris received his Bachelor of Arts from Michigan State University in 2004, with a major in General Business Administration Pre-Law. Chris received his Juris Doctorate from Michigan State University College of Law in 2007. After Law School, Chris worked for a Michigan law firm for one year before attending Georgetown University Law Center. In 2009, Chris received a Master of Laws in Taxation with a Certificate in Estate Planning from Georgetown University Law Center. While at Georgetown, Chris received a Pro Bono Pledge Certificate for his volunteer work helping low income individuals or families on tax issues through the DC EITC.